

Hartsville, South Carolina was named "All-American City" by the National Civic League and in the heart of this wonderful city's historic district you'll find the 19th century Oak Manor Inn. Situated on 2.5 acres of towering oaks, cedars and magnolias, and surrounded by sprawling lawns, the Federalist-style inn welcomes weary travelers.

Located across the street from the renowned Coker College, the inn has 5 spacious guest rooms, all with ensuite bathrooms. The cozy library and the stately living rooms have fireplaces. The Oak Manor Inn is centrally air-conditioned and heated. A full and hearty southern breakfast is served each morning and later you can enjoy a picturesque, 5 minute stroll to town to visit shops and restaurants, and the museum, or you can walk across the street and wander around the impressive Coker College campus. In the evening cocktails and soft drinks are served by request.

Whether you plan to spend the night with us or you plan to have a WEDDING, REHEARSAL PARTY, ANNIVERSARY, SHOWER, BIRTHDAY or REUNION fete, or you need to host a CORPORATE meeting or SEMINAR retreat, the owners and staff at Oak Manor Inn are here to assist your every need.
